

NEW MARKET

Production on new commercial business opportunities in the foreigners countries.

Company Profile.

In today's scenario in the midst of change and transformation became the economic side, industrial and cultural made more complex by the change in consumption, it has settled in the international market the NTS International Group Ltd. based in Malta and Qatar.

Company that was created to internationalize and guide the Italian companies that want to come along and do business in foreign markets. Although a young company, the NTS has acquired a deep understanding of international markets and customer requests. Today, thanks to these experiences, is able to offer an excellent service covering all aspects of the commercial relationship, from sales to after-sales, covering different sectors.

Colorful Entrepreneurs.

Offer a unique opportunity for business entrepreneurs from both countries to select new suppliers, meet new customers, investing in innovation and internationalization.

Factors relating to the business of today.

Already for some years, property in Italy is not in full development indeed in recession, we have decided to focus most of our economic and personal powers to emerging foreign countries. This prompted us to evaluate different countries over the past years, with the decision to place in Malta, Qatar and Miami where we have a corporate headquarters, and from where we take care of the business also to other countries. All this while keeping always in touch with the best companies and personnel in Italy strongest of the great know-how

Why internationalize.

The internationalization activities stems from the awareness that those who invest in a foreign market survives and thrives, while those who work exclusively in a national dimension will stagnate.

Abroad, the label "Made in Italy" is highly recognized and appreciated. This represents an extraordinary opportunity to present themselves to foreign markets from a position of absolute advantage and privilege.

The objective of the NTS.

Offering business opportunities to Italian companies through the close cooperation with our partners and institutions in the countries where we are present, with our offices and highly qualified personnel to represent them.

Offer growth opportunities to individuals and companies in the countries where we operate, who want to make significant investments in Italy making use of our expertise and know-how.

Market Research

To be successful in expanding their business into new markets requires a thorough job in collecting information. Knowing the market in advance, the needs and the desires of potential clients and possible actions by competitors, represents the first step to successfully enter foreign markets ...

From our headquarters and the qualified personnel for each sector, we develop customized market research for your business, we identify the needs of the market, we study the distribution channels, we research the product regulations and prepare them an investment strategy that will allow you to establish yourself in the market.

